Findings and recommendations:

- The issue of minorities and immigrants should be treated holistically. Key areas: meeting housing and other livelihood needs, employment, health insurance, education and respect for and cultivating the culture of each nationality.
- Prejudices and stereotypes are part of life. We shall bring up respect for diversity, identity, and personal dignity of every individual.
- Members of the target groups should be involved in all phases of the educational process, from planning to evaluation.
- Nothing for Roma without Roma.
- Necessity of financial literacy for vulnerable groups.
- Adult educators have to work proactively.
